Easter Seals Wisconsin Camps Invites the Community to Celebrate MLK Day of Service

Wisconsin Dells, WI—Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, “Life’s most persistent and urgent question is: What are you doing for others?” In the spirit of Martin Luther King, Jr., Easter Seals AmeriCorps members have planned a morning of service at Easter Seals Wisconsin Camp Wawbeek on Monday, January 15.

AmeriCorps members and Camp Wawbeek staff are inviting members of the community to join them for service projects at camp from 9:00 am - 12:00 pm followed by lunch at camp. The morning will be spent constructing busy boxes, making tie blankets, and picture frames.

Anyone is welcome to join in on the activities of the day, and if you have tools you think may come in handy, you are encouraged to bring those along. For more information on how to participate in the MLK Day of Service, please contact Rachel Howell, AmeriCorps Volunteer Coordinator at volunteer@eastersealswisconsin.com or call 608-254-8319.

About Easter Seals Wisconsin: For over 90 years, Easter Seals Wisconsin (www.EasterSealsWisconsin.com) has provided services that help children and adults with disabilities gain greater independence. Easter Seals’ primary services – vocation rehabilitation, respite services, camping and recreation, information and referral, and public education – benefit close to 10,000 individuals with disabilities and their families each year throughout Wisconsin.
