Easterseals Wisconsin Names Pat LeMire as New Board Chair

(MADISON, Wis.) – Easterseals Wisconsin has named Pat LeMire of Stoughton, Wis., as its new Chair of the Board of Directors. LeMire, who has served on the board for 12 years, succeeds Andy Crooks and will hold the position for a two-year term.

LeMire, who is a partner at M3 Insurance in Madison and Director of their Senior Living and Social Service practice group, has served in multiple capacities over the years. His contributions include chairing the governance, fiscal/personnel and audit committees, then serving as treasurer, first vice chair and now board chair. In his new role, he will help guide the organization’s strategic direction and continue its mission of serving children and adults with disabilities across Wisconsin.

“We are grateful for Pat’s longtime dedication to Easterseals Wisconsin,” Easterseals Wisconsin President & CEO Paul Leverenz said. “His leadership and experience will be invaluable as we continue to expand our programs and strengthen our impact throughout the state.”

LeMire is part of an 18-person board, which was elected at the annual meeting of the board in November 2024. He recently led his first board meeting on February 20.
